Projects

Open Source Contributions / publiclab/plots2
June 2018 - Present

Whenever an issue arises that I can fix at this github repo, I take it on and get it done.

My Own Open Source Project / STEMConstants
June 2018

A Library of Constants related to STEM fields that may be useful. This project is a ruby gem, and was a learning project.

Reddit Clone / Bloccit
November 2017

A Clone of Reddit made during my time at Bloc. This project was made entirely with Rails and I even hosted it on heroku.

Unrelated Work

Closed Captionist / Rev.com

March 2017 - Present

Here I started my first remote job, where I make my own hours. Ever since starting this job, I have been more self reliant, and can keep myself motivated for long periods of time. This job also requires a high level of detail-orientation, as sometimes hundreds of thousands will see my work, and the audio/visual impaired rely on it.
